

Put the report to work

Choose one decision. Use the report as a reflection prompt, then check it against your experience and practical constraints.

The recurring situation I want to understand

What happened, what I felt, and how I responded

One different response I want to try

One small step I can take this week

What I will review in 30 days
